

Edison Technical School

Seattle, Washington

This Certifies That

Pola Doenyas

Having satisfactorily completed the Course of Study prescribed for the High School is awarded this

Diploma

Given at Seattle, Washington, this fifth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and sixty.

E. Campbell
Superintendent

Lucius Schmitz
President of the Board of Education

H. E. Dickerman
Principal

Frank M. Brock
Secretary of the Board of Education

EDISON COMMENCEMENT: Aino Jaltanen, 22, left, who came to this country five years ago from Finland, served as example to these colorfully costumed ushers as she received a program for Edison Technical School's commencement exercises today. Miss Jaltanen, who plans to study at the University of Washington, received a high-school diploma. A total of 836 diplomas and certificates was presented. The ushers, dressed in the costumes of their homelands, are studying the English language. From left, Miss Jaltanen; Kazukoni Nomi and Hideko Ogata, from Japan; Louda Nasia, Greece; Yollanda Waller, Mexico; Gertrude Haugwitz, Bavaria, Germany; Amy Chinn, China; Pola Doenyas, Turkey; Ruth Magnussen, Norway, and Ingrid Rossberg, Sweden.